2006-2007 Accomplishments
• Open houses were held at the Gibson and Malcolm branches to acquaint Library patrons with the mission and activities of Friends. Lucite, tabletop display stands for applications and newsletters were placed in the Library branches.
• Friends purchased rolling display stands for use throughout the Library District.
• The third annual Library Tree Lane fundraiser yielded proceeds of $18,000 for the Library Outreach Program.
• During 2006, 7,542 volunteer hours were logged, and 75 new members joined Friends.
• Friends bought a video camera for the Library's oral history project ($5,000), 300 printed bags for the Book Club in a Bag project ($2,500), copies of the One Book Henderson selection The Five People You Meet in Heaven ($5,000), and software to enhance registration and calendar functions on the Library website ($8,000). Other Library projects supported by Friends included the Summer Reading Program and Reading with Rover. Friends and the Library shared cost of imprinted plastic bags.
• In 2006, bookstores made $7,858.46, and book sales totaled $21,655.15. The used bookstore was moved inside the Paseo Verde Library to improve sales.
• Ron Hughes, Chloe Ducharme, and Kathy Hug attended the Legislative Day of the Nevada Library Association in Carson City.
• Tom Fay and Ron Hughes began organizing a Friends of Nevada Libraries group.
• Friends recognized Kristy and Eric Price for five years of service to Friends.
