

Two Gifts in One—

For twenty dollars, you can provide a child's book for Henderson Libraries and honor someone special.

A contribution of twenty dollars ($20.00) to Friends of the Henderson Libraries through Library Tree Lane 2008 allows for the purchase and processing of a pre-school book for the opening-day collection of the Green Valley Library, scheduled to reopen in January 2009 under the administration of the Henderson Libraries.

A custom-made bookplate will designate you as the donor and give you the opportunity to celebrate an individual or group of your choice. You submit the exact names desired for your bookplate.

Sample Bookplate at Right

You will receive a card featuring the beautiful Library Tree Lane logo to announce your gift to the recipient of your choice. The card contains a replica of the bookplate for you to fill out as well as space for a personal message. Address and stamp the envelope for the perfect holiday gift.

For each twenty-dollar contribution, complete an information sheet to guide preparation of the bookplate. When paying by check, make it payable to Friends of the Henderson Libraries.
